

Workforce Development

Our Workforce Development Core trains scholars, community members, and research professionals for careers and engagement in translational science.

KL2 Scholars

- Individualized training curricula
- Professional development activities
- Mentored research experience
- 713 publications to date

Lecture Series and Workshops

- 34 junior faculty and 20 senior faculty members actively participating in K Club
- Community Engagement Lecture Series
- Clinical Lecture Series
- K Writing Workshop

Academy for Research Professionals

- Learn roles, responsibilities and regulatory requirements of a research coordinator
- Provide tools to coordinators perform their roles
- Enrollment also open to community members
- Over 150 attendees since 2016

Perceived improvement after program

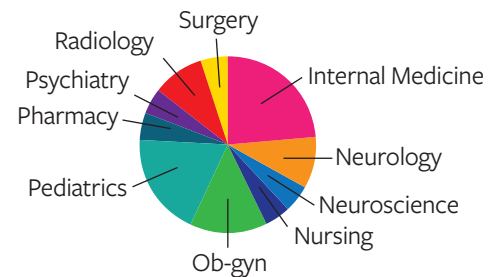

Team Science

- Promote the value of teams to conduct science
- Develop team models, leadership, and collaboration skills
- 393 trained in team science to date

MS in Translational Biomedicine

- Conduct mentored research
- 10 departments and 3 colleges represented
- 23 graduates from program
- 187 publications to date

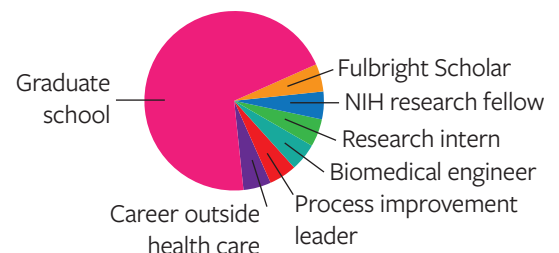

Departments (n=21)

Certificate in Clinical and Translational Science

- Experiential learning program in translational science
- Mentored research experience
- 21 completed the program so far

Current occupation (n=20)

Iowa Mentoring Academy

- Resources for effective mentoring
- Develop pipeline of certified mentors
- Supports diversity in workforce
- Build a cadre of trained facilitators

